RAWABI TRADING & CONTRACTING

Rawabi Trading & Contracting (RTC), a fully owned subsidiary of Rawabi Holding, was founded in 1980 with the vision of making practical supply and service a reality in the Oil & Gas industry. Today, RTC is the top agent and distributor for a vast portfolio of prominent, internationally recognized manufacturers; as well as Joint-Venture-based Oil & Gas and Petrochemicals services and technology providers.

RTC's trading line of business includes supply of up-stream and downstream chemical, mechanical and electrical products; test, measurement, and control instruments; as well as a diverse portfolio of production, transportation, and process equipment and materials.

As a contractor, RTC has established Joint Ventures with world renowned service providers, for carrying out activities and full operations in:

- Mud Engineering Services
- Oil & Gas Drilling
- Running Tubular and Casing Services
- Mud Logging Services
- Well Prevention Services
- Snubbing and Hydraulic Work-Over
- Water Treatment and Well Testing Services
- Submarine Cable Supply
- Repair and Laying Services
- Equipment and Tools Rentals
- Loss Control Management Systems
- Gas Detection Services

RTC also provides instrumentation and maintenance services to Oil & Gas fields, Petrochemicals and Power Plants.
